IRISH WHISKEY

POT STILL WHISKEY:

This is a unique style of whiskey to Ireland, generally produced using a mixed mash of at least 30% malted and 30% un-malted barley, however they can use up to 5% other grains, e.g oats, rye, wheat. It is distilled in pot stills, and matured for at least 3 years in wooden casks.

MALT WHISKEY:

This style of whiskey is made from 100% malted barley, distilled in pot stills, and matured for at least 3 years in wooden casks.

GRAIN WHISKEY:

Generally made from a mixed mash containing up to 95% maize or wheat, continuously distilled in Column stills, and matured for at least 3 years in wooden casks.

MIDLETON 'CHARLIE CHAWKE' 28 YEAR OLD SINGLE POT STILL SINGLE CASK EDITION

2019 marked the release of our first Single Cask Bottling in collaboration with the Midleton Distillery, the Pinnacle of Irish Whiskey.

Carefully selected by father & son, Charlie & Bill Chawke, alongside Midleton Master Distiller Brian Nation, this is truly one of the rarest Single Cask Irish whiskeys to be released.

Bonded on the 4th of July 1990, this First-fill bourbon cask, filled with Single Pot Still distillate, matured for 28 years before being bottled at natural cask strength for The Chawke Pub Group in spring 2019. The cask yielded just 168 bottles, making it the oldest & rarest Single Cask expressions for the Midleton Distillery.

It is available exclusively here:

35.5ml measure	€250
700ml bottle	€3500

TASTING NOTES

Nose: Rich toasted wood with a bold nutty character at the forefront while delicate hints of citrus zest develop overtime, giving balance to the mild pot still spices that remain constant in the background.

Taste: Rich in fruit notes with sweet pears developing into more exotic fruits of peach, apricot and mango. Delicate sweet vanilla works in tandem with the pot still spices and subtle tannins adding a sense of balance and structure.

Finish: Rich and lingering with the fruit constantly building overtime while the pot still spices fade, letting the toasted oak linger until the very end.

THE THREE COPPER STILL TASTING FLIGHTS

Our tasting platters are designed for you to explore the varying styles of Irish Whiskey we have to offer. The inspiration for these selections has been taken from Charlie's three daughters, Liza, Jenny, & Ali who our Three Copper Stills are named after, alongside exploratory platters of Pot Still & Malt Irish Whiskey. Each platter contains 3 x 15ml measure of the chosen whiskeys.
